➤ Housing glossary

You are currently looking for accommodation, but the terms and abbreviations used can sometimes make reading ads difficult. To help you, here is the non-exhaustive list of vocabulary generally used in real estate ads.

Definitions you need to know

➤ M2

Residential areas in France are expressed in square metres. The indication of the area is often accompanied by the information «Loi Carrez»; it is the name of the law in France which governs the areas taken into account in the measurements of an accommodation. The areas indicated in the real estate ads correspond to the living area (over 1.80 m in height). The minimum legal area, whatever the accommodation, is: 9 m² for 1 person, 16 m² for two people, then 9 m² per additional person.

➤ STUDIO

Single room with a kitchen, a bathroom, toilets. Average size 20m².

➤ T1 OR F1 BIS

One-room, a kitchen, a bathroom, toilets. Average size 30m².

➤ T2 OR F2

Two-room, a kitchen, a bathroom, toilets. Average size 40m².

➤ T3 OU F3

Three-room, a kitchen, a bathroom, toilets. Average size 55m².

The T or F followed by a number indicates the number of rooms. Depending on the case, the kitchen can be included in one of the rooms, or be separate.

➤ ASSURANCE HABITATION (HOME INSURANCE)

Insurance that covers any damage (water damage, fire, etc.) occurred in the accommodation or caused to another accommodation. It is mandatory. It is possible to take out this insurance with an insurance company, a bank or with student mutual insurance companies.

» BAIL OU CONTRAT DE LOCATION

(LEASE AGREEMENT)

Contract signed between the tenant and the lessor. It establishes the rights obligations of each party and the terms of the lease (duration, price, monthly rental charges, notice, amount of the deposit, terms of renewal). For apartment-sharing, either a single contract is signed by several people, or the landlord establishes several individual contracts.

» CHARGES LOCATIVES MENSUELLES

(MONTHLY RENTAL CHARGES)

Costs related to housing including the maintenance of communal areas (elevator, stairwell, green spaces, caretaking, cleaning communal areas, etc.). Charges may be included in the rental price or specified in the lease agreement. Do not confuse them with energy consumption costs such as water, electricity and gas, billed by independent bodies.

» CESSATION OU RUPTURE DE BAIL

(TERMINATION OR BREACH OF LEASE)

The tenant may terminate his/her lease at any time provided they respect the notice period stipulated in the lease agreement. The notice must be sent to the lessor by registered letter with acknowledgement of receipt

» COLOCATION (APARTMENT-SHARING)

Sharing an accommodation (furnished or not), rent and expenses with other people (flatmates). There are two types of leases in the case of apartment-sharing:

- The tenants all appear on the same lease. The landlord can add a solidarity clause allowing that in case of non-payment by one of the flatmates, the other ones are held responsible and must pay the unpaid rent.
- Each tenant has their own lease agreement for renting a room in an apartment. This is not legally a "colocation". There is no solidarity clause.

» DÉPÔT DE GARANTIE OU « CAUTION » (DEPOSIT)

Amount of money paid to the lessor when signing the contract. It will be returned within a maximum of two months following the tenant's departure. The amount cannot exceed one month of rent free of charges for unfurnished accommodation, and two months for furnished accommodation. It can be charged by the lessor if damage is noted at the time of the inventory of fixtures on departure.

✎ ÉTAT DES LIEUX D'ENTRÉE

(CHECK-IN INVENTORY OF FIXTURES)

It is established with the landlord when moving in the accommodation. It aims to note the condition of the accommodation on arrival and will serve as a reference during the inventory upon departure. It must be done in the presence of the tenant and the lessor and signed jointly. If the accommodation is furnished, the inventory must be completed by an inventory of the furniture.

✎ ÉTAT DES LIEUX DE SORTIE

(CHECK-OUT INVENTORY OF FIXTURES)

It consists of checking that the accommodation has not been damaged during the rental period. A comparison is made with the inventory of fixtures on arrival. If damage is noted, the landlord may withhold either part of the deposit, or all of it, or more depending on the damage noted (on presentation of an estimate or invoice). The inventory of fixtures must be carried out in the presence of the tenant and the landlord and signed jointly.

✎ GARANT (GUARANTOR)

Name given to the natural person (family member, friend, third party) or legal entity (companies, banks, associations) who undertakes to pay the tenant's rent in the event of the latter's insolvency. The guarantor must justify their means either by submitting his/her last three payslips or by providing his/her last tax notice.

✎ VISALE

Free coverage for all students between the ages of 18 and 31. Coverage of rent in the event of unpaid rent and damage to property. Facilitates access to private housing. Certificate issued in 48 hours.

✎ QUITTANCE DE LOYER (RENT RECEIPT)

Monthly receipt, written by the lessor and justifying the payment of the rent. It can serve as a proof of address for administrative procedures. It is delivered free of charge on request (the sending of the document can, however, be invoiced).

Please note BE AWARE OF BOOKING CHEQUES AND OTHER ILLEGAL CHARGES. EVEN THOUGH THIS PRACTICE IS BECOMING MORE AND MORE COMMON WITH ESTATE AGENCIES AND SOME PRIVATE LANDLORDS, IT IS AGAINST THE LAW TO ASK FOR A BOOKING CHEQUE.

➤ Moving into the accommodation

Expenditures to be planned

Before moving into an accommodation, it is advisable to make an estimate of the expenses to be expected, namely:

- Possible moving expenses
- Estate agency fees: approximately 1 month rent (if applicable)
- Deposit: 1 month rent (excluding charges)
- First month's rent
- Costs for opening water, gas meters, and electricity subscription
- Home insurance
- Housing tax (if the tenant is present on January 1st in the accommodation, and if he/she is liable)
- Subscription to an Internet, television and/or telephone service (if not included in the rental charges)
- Rental charges: costs incurred by the provision of collective services to all occupants, maintenance and use of the building (electricity, water and heating in communal areas, elevator, guard, household, green areas, garbage, sanitation)
- Costs of energy consumption: water, electricity and/or gas consumed in rented accommodation (amount collected by independent organisations such as ÉS - Énergies Strasbourg)

The monthly rental charges may include energy consumption in the rented accommodation, especially when the meter is not individual but common for the entire building. Some landlords of furnished accommodations sometimes offer a package that includes all charges (water, electricity, heating, Internet subscription) for the sake of simplicity, even when the meters are individual.

Please note THE LAW PROHIBITS THE LANDLORD FROM REQUESTING CERTAIN TYPES OF DOCUMENTS DEEMED CONFIDENTIAL (BANK ACCOUNT STATEMENT, BANK ACCOUNT CERTIFICATE, CERTIFICATE OF NO CREDIT, DIRECT DEBIT AUTHORISATION, COPY OF MARRIAGE CONTRACT OR COHABITATION CERTIFICATE, PERSONAL MEDICAL FILE, EXTRACT FROM THE CRIMINAL RECORD, ETC.).

Mandatory supporting documents for the rental file

Before signing the lease, the landlord (or real estate agent) has the right to inquire about the identity and solvency of the prospective tenant. In order to do so, they may require certain document. Most of these documents relate to the identity or level of financial means of the person:

- Valid French or foreign proof of identity: identity card, passport, driving licence, residence permit
- Proof of employment status: work contract or employer's certificate, internship agreement, student card or school certificate, as well as any recent document proving the professional activity
- Proof of financial means: last three payslips (if you are an employee) or two last activity reports (if you are self-employed)
- Proof of address (rental receipt, electricity bill, certificate of residence, sworn statement by the host, etc.).

Discrimination in access to accommodation is prohibited under penalty of criminal prosecution. The law prohibits discrimination on the basis of origin, religion, political opinion, sex, physical appearance, etc.

Guarantor

In addition to proof of financial means, the landlord may require a third party to act as guarantor for the tenant in order to ensure the payment of rent in the event of insolvency.

The guarantor, also known as a “guarantee”, is a natural person (family or friend) or legal entity (company, bank, public body such as Action Logement) who undertakes to pay the rent and charges (as well as any interest in the case of late payment) in the event that the tenant is unable to meet his or her obligations.

There are two types of guarantees:

- The “simple” guarantee: the lessor first appeals to the tenant before resorting to the person acting as guarantor. The guarantor can only be requested if the tenant is unable to pay his rental debts
- The “joint and several” guarantee: the landlord can call on the guarantor directly from the first unpaid rent, without going through the tenant. This is the most common type of guarantee chosen by the landlord. The risks are more significant, as the guarantor is at the same level of commitment as the tenant. The landlord can choose to approach either of them and claim the amounts owed by the tenant.

Any person acting as guarantor must draw up a document of commitment called a “deed of guarantee”. The deed of guarantee must contain various handwritten statements:

- The amount of the rent and the conditions for its revision as stated in the rental agreement;
- A statement explicitly and unequivocally expressing the nature and extent of its obligation;
- The reproduction of article 22-1 al. 2 of the law n°89-462 of July 6, 1989;
- The signature of the guarantor.

The lessor is required to provide the guarantor with a copy of the rental agreement. Failure to comply with these formalities shall result in the nullity of the commitment. Do not hesitate to take pictures to argue and complete

Please note CERTAIN CLAUSES ARE PROHIBITED IN THE LEASE, KNOWN AS UNFAIR CLAUSES. FOR EXAMPLE, ORDERING THE AUTOMATIC DEBITING OF RENT, IMPOSING AN INSURANCE COMPANY TO INSURE THE PROPERTY, AUTOMATICALLY DESIGNATING THE TENANT AS RESPONSIBLE FOR ANY DAMAGE TO THE PROPERTY, ETC. THE RENT CAN BE REVISED ONCE A YEAR, ACCORDING TO THE VARIATION OF THE RENT REFERENCE INDEX, ONLY IF THE CONTRACT INCLUDES A REVISION CLAUSE.

Signing the rental agreement (lease)

For any type of rental (furnished or not), the rental agreement or “lease” sets out the rules for the occupation of the premises by the tenant, the duration of the stay, the conditions for paying the rent, as well as the conditions for termination.

The rental agreement must therefore include:

- The name and address of the landlord
- The names of the tenant(s) (if shared)
- The effective date and duration of the lease
- The use of the accommodation (main or temporary residence)
- The living area of the accommodation in m²
- Description of the accommodation (house or apartment, number of rooms) and its facilities for private and common use
- Information on rent, rental charges, deposit (amounts, dates, payment frequency)
- Information on estate agency fees and inventory of fixtures (if applicable)

The lease must be in writing, dated and signed by both parties.

The landlord and the tenant each keep an identical copy of the lease and the signed documents.

Check-in inventory of fixtures

The inventory of fixtures is a mandatory document that describes the rented accommodation. It must be attached to the rental agreement. It is used to compare the condition of the accommodation at the beginning and end of the tenancy and to determine, in the event of necessary repairs, which repairs are the responsibility of the landlord and/or the tenant.

If the accommodation is furnished, an inventory must be attached to the inventory of fixtures. It specifies the equipment and furniture provided, as well as their condition. It is therefore important to check that the equipment is in proper working order (household appliances, heating, smoke detectors, etc.) and to read the water, electricity and gas meters before moving in.

In the case of a rental agreement carried out via an estate agency or a professional, the check-in inventory of fixtures is not free. The cost, calculated according to the surface area of the accommodation, is shared equally between the landlord and the tenant. However, the check-out inventory of fixtures is free of charge.

It is in the tenant's interest to require that an inventory of fixtures is drawn up. In the absence of an inventory of fixtures the tenant is presumed to have received the accommodation in good condition, unless he proves the contrary or proves that the landlord is at the origin of the refusal.

As a tenant, you have the right to rectify the inventory of fixtures (within 10 days of signing the document). Corrections should be sent by registered mail with acknowledgement of receipt.

Home insurance

Home insurance is mandatory for both furnished and unfurnished accommodation.

The tenant must provide the landlord with a certificate of insurance when the keys are handed over, and once a year if requested. It covers the accommodation and the goods against the following risks: fire, explosion, water damage, theft, natural disasters and storms, glass breakage, terrorist attacks or acts, as well as civil liability in the event of damage caused to third parties during private life.

Apart from these main risks, your insurer can offer you additional guarantees that may be useful, such as repair costs, expert fees, legal assistance, relocation costs, compensation for damage to your electrical appliances or theft.

Please note HOWEVER, OF THE EXCLUSIONS PROVIDED FOR IN YOUR HOME INSURANCE, I.E. EVENTS THAT ARE NOT COVERED OR CONDITIONS THAT MAY PREVENT THE COVER FROM BEING EFFECTIVE. FOR EXAMPLE, IN THE CASE OF FIRE INSURANCE, A FIRE STARTED DELIBERATELY BY THE INSURED (FIREPLACE, BARBECUE) IS NOT COVERED BY SOME INSURANCES. IT IS IMPORTANT TO READ THE FINE PRINT CAREFULLY.

The cost of home insurance must generally be paid for one year, regardless of the actual length of your stay.

↳ Living in the accommodation

Electricity / Gas

To open an electricity or gas account, you will need the following documents:

- Your rental agreement
- A proof of identity
- The name of the previous contract holder

The main electricity supplier in Strasbourg is Électricité de Strasbourg (ÉS). The main gas supplier in Strasbourg is Réseau GDS (RGDS). Other suppliers are called "alternative". You can consult the website of the French consumers' union ufc.quechoisir.org

For practical purposes, it is strongly advised to keep the same energy supplier as the previous tenant. When you move in, the electricity and gas connections should be in place (this is usually the case). You will then have to contact ÉS or RGDF in order to take out a subscription. The service will then be provided within 48 hours.

The standard French electricity network is the same as in Europe, with a voltage of 220 V and a frequency of 50 Hz. The shapes of the sockets may vary significantly from those used in France; it is possible to buy adaptors.

Be careful WITH TRANSFORMERS THAT ADAPT THE VOLTAGE BUT NOT THE FREQUENCY: THEY CAN CAUSE YOUR EQUIPMENT TO MALFUNCTION. TO SOLVE THIS, GET A CONVERTER THAT DELIVERS A 50 HZ FREQUENCY.

The cost for opening an electricity or gas account includes the commissioning fee. You will then pay your monthly subscription and your consumption (by direct debit or by Internet) every two months, after receiving the invoice. For gas, the cost depends on your average consumption, but also on the location of your accommodation, the architecture of the supply network and the distance from the main network, which are not the same from one municipality to another.

The meters are read every 6 months on the dates indicated on the first bill (called the "facture-contrat"). If you are not at home when the meter reader comes, you can read your meters yourself. To do so, you just need to send back the self-reading form that was submitted free of charge. If the reading cannot be taken, you can make an appointment with your provider.

For further information, visit the energy suppliers' website:

EDF.FR

PARTICULIERS.ENGIE.FR

Water

If you have an individual meter, you must read the water meter in the presence of your landlord as soon as you move in. You may not have an individual meter but a single meter for the whole block of flats. In this case, your water consumption is included in your charges

The meter measures your consumption in m³. The national average for water consumption is 50m³ per year per person. The price of water depends on each town and on several criteria (area served, taxes, sanitation, etc.).

Moreover, the water is drinkable everywhere in France (otherwise, you will see the mention "water not drinkable" (eau non-potable), do not hesitate to drink it.

Telephone

To open an already existing telephone line, you will need:

- Your rental agreement,
- A proof of identity,
- The name of the previous owner of the line or the old number

In France, the most common telephone operator is Orange. But there are other operators that you can choose from in order to call nationally and internationally. However, if you are setting up a new line, you will have to ask Orange to activate it. First check that there is a line in your accommodation, and then, if necessary, ask Orange to activate it. You can then freely choose your service provider.

In most cases, the landline can be reactivated within 48 hours, and you will receive a telephone number (different from that of the previous tenant). You can keep it confidential by registering on the "liste rouge" (paid service).

Internet

In addition to telephony, the services generally offered by service providers are Internet subscription and access to various television channels.

The main ISPs (Internet Service Providers) in France are Orange, Free, SFR, and Bouygues Telecom. To learn more about the different service providers, you can consult the website of the French Consumers' Union – UFC Que Choisir quechoisir.org. It is your responsibility to carefully check the terms and pricing of the offers before signing up.

If you bring a phone from your country of origin, it is important to check that it is compatible with the French system (DECT standard). If you do not want to buy a new phone, many providers offer rental phones.

Cleaning

On arrival, your accommodation must be in a clean and tidy condition. It is your responsibility to maintain it regularly and to leave it clean when you move out

To help you maintain your accommodation on a daily basis, here are some tips:

- Ventilate your rooms at least 10 minutes a day. Open your windows. Don't forget to close them properly if you are going to be away.
- Regularly Dust surfaces. Clean your windows. Sweep, vacuum and wash the floor, including under furniture (bed - desk - table).
- Descale all your valves and fittings. Descale thoroughly with a descaling agent or white vinegar (economical and effective). Scrub your washbasin from the inside and outside with these products

- Regularly clean and descale your shower/tub and toilet (if equipped). Do not use scouring agents or products containing ammonia. Do not forget to clean the shower drain (hair, dust, etc.).
- Clean your ventilation grids. To be done from time to time, if necessary, with soapy water or degreasing agent (washing-up liquid or other).
- Remove grease from your hotplates with a degreasing agent or bicarbonate of soda. Also clean your sink to avoid limescale.
- The day before your departure: Defrost your fridge before you unplug it. Clean it inside, outside and underneath (in addition to regular inside cleaning).

Waste sorting

In France, waste sorting is generally divided into two categories:

- non-recyclable waste, to be disposed of in the “normal” dustbin,
- recyclable waste (paper, cardboard, plastic, glass, aluminium), to be disposed of in specific dustbins, which are often characterised by a different colour (the colours may vary from one municipality to another).

Non-recyclable waste is collected at your doorstep. Dump trucks drive around the streets to empty the dustbins. Dustbins must be put out on the pavement either by the maintenance staff or by the residents of the block of flats.

Depending on where you live, there may be a collection day for recyclable waste. If your municipality does not have a collection day for recyclable waste, there are collective bins for each district, usually for glass and then for other recyclable waste. In this case you will have to put the recyclable waste in these bins yourself.

Batteries, furniture (called “bulky”, “encombrant” in French), household appliances, paints and other toxic products, as well as “green” waste (branches, grass, wood, etc.) should not be thrown away in the “normal” dustbin. In this case, you will have to go to your local recycling centre to dispose of the waste, or use a dedicated doorstep collection service.

For the inhabitants of Strasbourg and the member municipalities of the Strasbourg Eurometropolis, a document entitled  Consigne du tri (sorting instructions) explains the waste disposal rules to be followed.

- ➔ Inform your tax office of your new address;

↘ Check-out inventory of fixtures

The inventory of fixtures is carried out on the day of departure from the accommodation and with the landlord (or estate agent) in order to compare the condition of the accommodation at the beginning and end of the tenancy. Possible damage can be noted and, in the event that repairs are necessary, it can be determined which ones will be paid for by the landlord and/or the tenant.

Amounts may be deducted from the guarantee deposit for rent, charges, repairs or damage for which the tenant may be held responsible. You avoid the risks by cleaning the accommodation and carrying out the repairs that are your responsibility (holes in the walls, etc.).

If no damage is observed in the accommodation at the time of the check-out inventory of fixtures, the landlord must pay back the tenant the full amount of the security deposit. The guarantee deposit must be paid back within a maximum period of:

- 1 month if the check-out inventory of fixtures complies with the check-in one
- 2 months if the check-out inventory of fixtures reveals differences with the check-in one

This period begins on the day the keys are returned by the tenant, who may hand them over to the landlord or his authorised representative (the estate agent), or by registered letter with acknowledgement of receipt. If necessary, you can keep your French bank account during this period so that the amount can be transferred to it.

If the landlord asks you to pay for repairing the accommodation, this must be proven by quotations or invoices. Some damage may be attributable to you (holes in the walls, deterioration, lack of maintenance, etc.), but not the wear caused by the age of the furniture and equipment.

The check-out inventory of fixtures must be signed by the landlord and the tenant. Each party shall keep an identical copy.
